Treaty between the United States of America and the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors of the Mohegan, Tribe of Indians, the Oneida, Tuscarora and Stockbridge Nations.

Articles of a Treaty made and concluded at Fort Stanwix, this twenty-second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, between the Honorable Oliver Wolcott and Richard Butler, Commissioners Plenipotentiary of the United States in Congress assembled, of the one part, and the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors of the Mohegan, Oneida, Tuscarora and Stockbridge Nations of Indians, of the other part.

Whereas the United States in Congress assembled, have the sole and exclusive right of regulating the trade with the Indians, and managing all affairs with them, of any nation not within any of the States, as their boundaries may be ascertained by future compacts; and whereas the Mohegan, Oneida, Tuscarora and Stockbridge Nations, or parts of those nations, did, during the late war between the United States and Great Britain, adhere to the said United States, and did faithfully perform the stipulations of a treaty held with them at Albany in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, by the Commissioners of the said United States; and whereas the said Nations, or parts of Nations, have, by their Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors, this day, in behalf of their respective Nations, agreed to all the articles hereinafter mentioned, and have engaged to perform the same; and whereas the said Commissioners have, in behalf of the United States
